

THE DOS AND DONTS OF CAUCUSING HOW TO AVOID BECOMING A HAZER OR A VICTIM OF HAZING

Revisit the mission of the organization and address purpose of the caucus and the tasks that must be completed

Clarify and establish with the leadership what is appropriate and inappropriate to maintain consistency

As a host, strive to create a safe and unthreatening environment for your delegates and candidates

Appropriate questions:

1. Any content related to platform/flyer
2. Time management, productivity
3. Questions about the candidates desired position and responsibilities
4. Qualities and characteristics
5. Comparisons to appropriate relevant topics
6. Strength and weakness
7. Goals for the organization
8. Application of key club's mission, vision, and values
9. Deal with the pressure of the candidates desired position
10. Past experience (include work, projects, chair, and leadership roles)
11. Favorite service project/moment
12. Specific questions on international

"Caring our way of life"

Inappropriate Questions:

1. Anything that has to do with singing and/or dancing (defined as movements outside of speaking gestures)
2. Compare yourself to a (insert inanimate, irrelevant object)
3. Anything that has sexual connotations.
4. The layout of the room should be safe
5. Any questioning of district specific statistics and data
6. Anything that has to do with race, religion and sexual orientation
7. Asking why you are better than another candidate.

KEY CLUB

